Take the Metro Red Line to Tenleytown / AU. From the station, find your way to where the shuttle buses board to take students up to American University. This year, for the first time, there will also be an orange and green Old Town Trolley shuttle boarding there to take you to Washington Hebrew Congregation for free!

If you prefer Metrobus from downtown, take the N2-4-6 buses from Dupont Circle
(Massachusetts Avenue & 20th St. NW)

You will disembark at Macomb Street and Massachusetts Avenue NW. Walk east on Macomb Street until you see Washington Hebrew Congregation on the left side of Macomb Street NW.

Paid parking is available a few blocks away at Cathedral Commons Garage, located at 3710 Newark Street NW. A little further away is the outdoor parking lot at National United Methodist Church on the corner of New Mexico and Nebraska Avenues NW. That lot is free to everyone on a space available basis. Look for the orange and green trolley that will begin operating on a continuous loop at 6:00 p.m. There is also on-street parking here in the neighborhood, but read the posted signs closely about how long you can park there.
