- The Association of United Hindu and Jain Temples (UHJT) represents 14 temples/organizations in Washington DC Metropolitan area. The member Temples can be contacted or visited for field trip or for leaning thru UHJT website.
- The major objectives of the UHJT are to promote religious, cultural, charitable and educational activities related to Hindu and Jain Faiths, participate in multifaith Dialogues to create a better understanding at Interfaith Council of Metropolitan Washington (IFCMW) and also to participate and serve as host at Gandhi Statue during Unity Walk.
- The UHJT has been active member of IFCW since 1992.
- The UHJT Temples also perform community service locally.
- We have submitted letters of support to many government/ political authorities in support of justice and peace, as needed.
- One of the biggest projects of UHJT has been the production of Diwali Mela (Festival of Light since 1995) attracting more than 8000 people at its peak.
